What is Story Links?

Story Links is a parent partnership intervention to support pupils at risk of exclusion. It uses therapeutic story writing to address behaviour issues of pupils with attachment difficulties, develops parents' emotional literacy skills and improves pupils' reading.

Is Story Links Training right for me?

This course is aimed at SEN teachers, SENCOs, inclusion support teachers, school counsellors, HSLWs, behaviour and family support workers working with vulnerable pupils at KS 1 & 2.

What is the evidence-base?

Research funded by the TDA found that Story Links increased parental involvement in pupils' learning, improved behaviour in school and increased pupils' engagement with reading.

“Story Links has been very effective here. It's a valuable vehicle for working with parents of pupils at risk of exclusion and especially supports those pupils who also have problems with literacy.

Story Links is particularly helpful in addressing the needs of vulnerable children, who are at risk of exclusion or who exclude themselves by non-attendance or withdrawal from interaction with others. It is based on Attachment Theory and seeks to foster good attachment through the medium of co-creating stories, as well as to improve reading skills by removing emotional barriers to practice. It is an ideal intervention for looked after children and a good use of Pupil Premium.
